Forecast for Wednesday 10 Feb 2021

Weather: Very cold, particularly at height with perhaps a few scattered snow showers appearing overnight and early to mid-morning, mainly confined to far north and eastern ranges. However most will stay dry with plenty of weak winter sunshine around.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 75% at first in far north and east, otherwise 90% plus.

Visibility: Generally very good but poor or very poor in snow showers, also in drifting and where snow bases lower 500-700m in and around showers.
